My dear Mrs. Steel [sic]

I have been going to write to you every week for the last month[s] but have been putting it off expecting a report on some business matters which report has not reached me as yet it is some business that the Colonel and myself are both interested in. I shall have the report in any case before long. I sincerely hope that the Colonel is well and all the rest of your family I have been longing to hear

Believe me

Yours sincerely
