

York Factory 27th June 1844 -

[1]

Rev.d Sir,

I had the pleasure of receiving your favour of the 31st [letter?] by Mr. Mowat who delivered it to this depot the various articles mentioned in your letter as such for the accommodations of the Rev.d Mr. Hunter whom you expect by the ship of the season to this factory.

In reply I beg even to say that I shall have great pleasure in complying with your request to supply on all of the Church Missionary Society whatever may be considered requisite, in addition to the above, to enable that gentleman and Mrs. Hunter to proceed with comfort to the interior this autumn - An acct. [account] of such supply will be sent to you by the winter [packet?] and their cost charged to to R. R. S shop where it can be settled by you in the usual manner.

I regret to add that I have not in D[?] and [?] of my descriptions, - [?] and any expected for this [?] by the ship - [?] and not now in the habit of

[2]

[top left of page ripped off]

... them even for sale, - and shows how [?] much [pleasure?] in mutiny you [?] in thy nature [?]

Wish usual regard and [remain?]

Rev.d Sir

Your [?] [?] [?]

Hargrave