Gertrude Steele to Sam Steele

[pg 1]

Montreal, P. Q.
April 20, 1902

Dear papa, how are you. I am very lonesome for you. It has been raining. Grandma is well and Flora also. Mamma is going to take us to church this afternoon.

[pg 2]

The sun is shining. I like to go and here [sic] the little blind girls sing, I [illegible] have to close good bye.

I remain your loving little child

Gertrude
