Kindest regards to all my friends

My darling Mother: -

I went up to school yesterday to take out some clothes from the steamer trunk, & to pay my respects.

The Revd. Mother said she had heard from you. She seemed pleased to see me.

I called on Mother St. M. Beatrice in the afternoon & she is most anxious for me to remain the whole year. But I am determined to return home as soon as possible. I know there is not another place where one can be so happy. As soon as my teeth are finished, which I trust will be before Xmas, then I go home.

Really I must go back to you all. I am living on the idea of home for Christmas.

I had tea at Uncle Bob's, spent the evening at Mr. Baker's, & slept with Marjorie. I am invited to dine & have tea at both places so shall have dinner at Uncle's & tea with Mr. Baker.

I have just come from there, for the purpose of writing you & father.

Your long letter was much enjoyed. I am sorry to say Miss [Methol] has not returned to the Academy. Mr. Lawrence, Meg's fiance has asked me to go to the theatre with them on Mon. but I cannot manage an excuse. I am also asked to go with them to hear Harry Lander when he comes to Montreal I must manage an excuse on that occasion!

[/pg 4]

[pg 5]

I am sorry I have no time to write the dear Aunts just yet.

I have the forwarded p.c. & two letters.

Miss Robinson offers to buy or lend anything out from England if you have any article in view. Of course I shall thank her for the offer.

I called Dr. & Miss Macdonald. The former had written me, but had not mailed the letter.

Esther's uncle Sir Henry Jackson died lately of cancer in England.

It is warm here.

Write soon & when I tell you "all's well" & ready to return home, you can write the nuns before so that I can leave at Xmas (I think).

With much love & many kisses to all.

Every yr. own

Flora
