My dear Sir

I have just received your two letters, and according to request I now send the 10 lbs nails.- I can let you have a little fresh Beef whenever you like to send for it & I think I shall be obliged to kill an animal next week in which case I will let you know when to send for a quarter.--

I am exceedingly obliged to you for the trouble to took in securing the goods taken from here by young Flett; I cannot help thinking however that W^m Tait had something to do in persuading the lad to act in the manner he has done, but be this as it may, I will certainly do all in my power to get the young scamp punished. I enclos a priced account of the articles taken by yound [sic?] Flett, & you can keep whatever you think proper

I am

My dear Sir

Yours very truly
