Marie Steele to Sam Steele

[pg 1]

Sept. 24th

My darling,

Your second letter of Sept. 21st came this p.m. & being a business one contained little news. You sent me a cheque for Biddell but as you did not return his a/c to me, I still hold it - $15.00 for keep of horse.

What was Ashdown's a/c for?

What was Alberta stables for? We walked to the station when Torla left & I paid the transport. I did not send any but "Toole, Peet & Co., the H.B.Co., Freeze, Farmer's Meat Market, Draper (Grocer) & Burns, the last four being the missing ones. I will pay the Butcher with the draft but will it be all right? You will not forget & will also pay the balance out of what you sent me for my own use. Certainly, I shall let Capt. Mackie have the desk key whenever he wants it - it is safely here.

It is now dinner time & having written a long letter will say bye-bye. With oceans of love from

Your own devoted wifie,

Maye.
